FIRST READING

JOS 5:9A, 10-12

The LORD said to Joshua, "Today I have removed the reproach of Egypt from you." While the Israelites were encamped at Gilgal on the plains of Jericho, they celebrated the Passover on the evening of the fourteenth of the month. On the day after the Passover, they ate of the produce of the land in the form of unleavened cakes and parched grain. On that same day after the Passover, on which they ate of the produce of the land, the manna ceased. No longer was there manna for the Israelites, who that year ate of the yield of the land of Canaan.

The word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

(WORSHIP #1023) | PS 34:2-3, 4-5, 6-7 | GELINEAU OR GUIMONT

TASTE AND SEE THE GOODNESS OF THE LORD.

SECOND READING

2 COR 5:17-21

Brothers and sisters: Whoever is in Christ is a new creation: the old things have passed away; behold, new things have come. And all this is from God, who has reconciled us to himself through Christ and given us the ministry of reconciliation, namely, God was reconciling the world to himself in Christ, not counting their trespasses against them and entrusting to us the message of reconciliation.

So we are ambassadors for Christ, as if God were appealing through us. We implore you on behalf of Christ, be reconciled to God. For our sake he made him to be sin who did not know sin, so that we might become the righteousness of God in him.

The word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Praise and honor to you, Lord Jesus Christ. Praise and honor to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Repent, says the Lord; the kingdom of heaven is at hand.

MT 4:17

GOSPEL

LK 15:1-3, 11-32

Tax collectors and sinners were all drawing near to listen to Jesus, but the Pharisees and scribes began to complain, saying, "This man welcomes sinners and eats with them." So to them Jesus addressed this parable: "A man had two sons, and the younger son said to his father, 'Father give me the share of your estate that should come to me.' So the father divided the property between them. After a few days, the younger son collected all his belongings and set off to a distant country where he squandered his inheritance on a life of dissipation. When he had freely spent everything, a severe famine struck that country, and he found himself in dire need. So he hired himself out to one of the local citizens who sent him to his farm to tend the swine. And he longed to eat his fill of the pods on which the swine fed, but nobody gave him any. Coming to his senses he thought, 'How many of my father's hired workers have more than enough food to eat, but here am I, dying from hunger. I shall get up and go to my father and I shall say to him, "Father, I have sinned against heaven and against you. I no longer deserve to be called your son; treat me as you would treat one of your hired workers."' So he got up and went back to his father. While he was still a long way off, his father caught sight of him, and was filled with compassion. He ran to his son, embraced him and kissed him. His son said to him, 'Father, I have sinned against heaven and against you; I no longer deserve to be called your son.' But his father ordered his servants, 'Quickly bring the finest robe and put it on him; put a ring on his finger and sandals on his feet. Take the fattened calf and slaughter it. Then let us celebrate with a feast, because this son of mine was dead, and has come to life again; he was lost, and has been found.' Then the celebration began. Now the older son had been out in the field and, on his way back, as he neared the house, he heard the sound of music and dancing. He called one of the servants and asked what this might mean. The servant said to him, 'Your brother has returned and your father has slaughtered the fattened calf because he has him back safe and sound.' He became angry, and when he refused to enter the house, his father came out and pleaded with him. He said to his father in reply, 'Look, all these years I served you and not once did I disobey your orders; yet you never gave me even a young goat to feast on with my friends. But when your son returns who swallowed up your property with prostitutes, for him you slaughter the fattened calf.' He said to him, 'My son, you are here with me always; everything I have is yours. But now we must celebrate and rejoice, because your brother was dead and has come to life again; he was lost and has been found.'"

The Gospel of the Lord.
Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

HOMILY

THE NICENE CREED

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

OUR FATHER, WE HAVE WANDERED

PREPARATION OF THE ALTAR AND PRESENTATION OF GIFTS
(WORSHIP #963) | PASSION CHORALE

1. Our Father, we have wandered And hidden from your face;
In foolishness have squandered Your legacy of grace.
But now, in exile dwelling, We rise with fear and shame,
As distant but compelling, We hear you call our name.

2. And now at length discerning The evil that we do,
Behold us, Lord, returning With hope and trust to you.
In haste you come to meet us And home rejoicing bring,
In gladness there to greet us With calf and robe and ring.

3. O Lord of all the living, Both banished and restored, Compassionate, forgiving And ever caring Lord, Grant
now that our transgressing, Our faithlessness may cease.
Stretch out your hand in blessing, In pardon and in peace.

Though I cannot see the end for me, I cannot turn away.
We have set our hearts for the way; this journey is our destiny.

From Father Grecco regarding the celebration of the Sacred Triduum 2019

Friends, I present to you the schedule for the Holy Week services in our grouping. This decision was extremely difficult to make because of the attachment we still have to “our “church building and” our” Mass times. As with the preparation of the Christmas schedule, I am aware that I cannot please everyone. I assure you I made my best effort.

The Sacred Triduum (Holy Thursday, Good Friday, Easter Vigil/Day) is ideally celebrated in one place. That is a practice toward which we will work. Although separate ceremonies, they are enmeshed and celebrate one reality--the passion, death and resurrection of the Lord. The circumstances in which we now find ourselves make one location impossible without hurt feelings or presumed favoritism toward one church building.

Many aspects of the location selected for particular services are based on the benefits/unique aspects of a church building. Of course, the size of the building is always primary in the process. We need to be able to fit into the space all who want to attend for the holy days. Additionally, as we now have a combined traditional choir, there needs to be appropriate space for them as well as acoustics that will enhance the singers and instrumentalists. The ability for the participants to view what is happening (i.e. The washing of the feet; veneration of the cross; lighting of the Easter fire) is an important component when selecting a site. Additionally, the scheduling must keep in mind the availability of priests and organists and their ability to be available for the numerous Mass times required.

Some necessary information to review:

Seating capacity

SEAS 625

SMOS 650

SSJ 850

Total participants 2018

Holy Thursday 786 (219 SEAS + 358 SSJ + 209 SMOS)

Good Friday 775 (297 SEAS + 292 SSJ + 186 SMOS)

Easter Vigil 560 (212 SEAS + 158 SSJ + 190 SMOS)

Based on this information, there is only one site that could easily accommodate the numbers. What follows will be the plan, as a trial run, for this year’s Triduum celebration. Next year, based on what we as priests experience, the schedule may be very different and we may concentrate services to fewer sites. In the coming year, we should make the effort to visit the other churches so as to become more comfortable, recognizing that we will not remain three separate parishes.

Thursday, April 18 Holy Thursday

We Are Ambassadors for Christ – When reflecting

ON MISSION FOR
ALIVE!

ON MISSION FOR THE CHURCH

on faith we often consider the importance of trust. This reflection is typically focused on our need to trust in God and not to worry or be anxious about anything. However, we cannot forget all that God has entrusted to us as his beloved children. He has given us life and gifts and talents and trusts that we will use them for the good of others in fulfillment of his will. In light of this, we should take to heart Saint Paul's words in today's second reading: "so we are ambassadors for Christ, as if God were appealing through us." Aware of all that God has entrusted to us we become his representatives in the world, reflecting his light and love through our words and deeds. On Mission for The Church Alive! becomes our opportunity to be Christ's representatives in our parishes, our communities and beyond as he entrusts all of us with the task of building up the Church. As we work to have our hearts transformed and strengthened this Lent may the result be our ever-faithful witness to God's life at work in us.
